Shortage of COVID-19 vaccine worries residents

By N Rathi Chithra

Shortage of the Covishield as well as Covaxin vaccines is causing concern among a cross-section of residents of Mogappair, Anna Nagar, Ambattur and its surrounding localities, who are keen on shielding themselves from the COVID-19 virus.

Over the past few days, many public vaccination centres in and around these localities have either displayed 'No Vaccine Available' boards outside the gates or have only limited quantities of vials making it difficult for the public to freely access them. At many centres, only about 100 doses of Covishield arrive on a daily basis and in the case of Covaxin the shortage is even more acute with it being made available only for those eligible for the second dose.

"Ever since the Government authorities opened up vaccination for all those aged above 18 years, getting the jab has become difficult. In the Mogappair East neighbourhood itself I know of so many of the eligible population who are unable to get themselves vaccinated for the first dose itself," said Wilson Aseervatham, a resident of an apartment complex in the locality.

"In fact, the Greater Chennai Corporation itself was forced to suspend vaccination for three days across the city, except for using the existing vials," he added.

While vaccines are available at some of the private hospitals, residents say that they find it unaffordable. "As it is I had to take a 30 per cent pay cut from my office when the first wave of the novel coronavirus disease pandemic broke out last year. A dose of vaccine costs over Rs 1,000 in private hospitals. In our house, we have four members who are eligible for the vaccination including my aged mother, wife and two college going children, who are above 18 years old. How can I spend for them to get vaccinated. But I am unable to find vaccination at Government facilities," lamented a resident of Economically Weaker Section neighbourhood in Thirumangalam.

"The risk of contracting the infection is still real though the number of those testing positive for COVID-19 has come down in recent weeks. Therefore, the Government must make arrangements to vaccinate all residents free of cost and give priority to those awaiting their second dose of vaccination," said Maniraj, a resident of Anna Nagar.

PUBLIC HESITATE TO VIOLATE TRAFFIC RULES

The upgraded automated e challan system to fine motorist violating traffic rules in Anna Nagar has been seeing more than 10,000 cases of signal jumps, crossing the stop lines, driving on the wrong side and speeding. All the challans reach the registered phone numbers of the violators. Police expect this to bring down the number of people violating traffic rules. The public seem to be abiding by the rules. Now they are hesitant to violate the traffic rules which at one time looked like minor offences.

Residents welcome move to remove posters from walls

By N Rathi Chithra

Residents living in the neighbourhoods of Mogappair East, West, Anna Nagar and Nollambur have welcomed the Greater Chennai Corporation's initiative to remove posters pasted on public walls and properties.

The Greater Chennai Corporation had recently launched a concerted drive to remove posters from public properties across its 15 zones including the Anna Nagar and Ambattur zones. On Friday, staff engaged by the civic agency were spotted peeling off posters that were pasted on the unfinished pillars of the proposed Maduravoyal to Ennore Port Elevated Corridor Project close to Nerkundram near Mogappair.

The initiative to keep public walls and properties free of posters was revived by the Greater Chennai Corporation Commissioner Gagandeep Singh Bedi, who is a senior IAS officer of the Tamil Nadu cadre. He has directed officials of the civic body to identify five bus route roads every day and clear all the walls and public properties along these roads of posters – be it political banners or those pasted by random organisations or coaching institutions. The idea is to prevent defacement of public properties.

“The Greater Chennai Corporation has said that residents could call its helpline number 1913 to report about such defacement as well as place requests to remove the posters from public walls in their respective localities. Some residents of Mogappair have also called the helpline and lodged complaints,” said an official of the Ambattur Zone of the Greater Chennai Corporation, who requested anonymity. “Even the posters pasted on bus shelters, which end up concealing the bus routes, are being removed,” the official said.

Welcoming the initiative, Surendran, a resident of Welcome Colony in Thirumangalam, said that it is an eyesore to watch walls along main roads, electricity transformers and bus shelters being defaced by posters. “I have even come across street signboards being covered by posters making it difficult for people to identify a location. Such things must stop,” he said.

Residents said that the initiative should not be a one-off publicity stunt but must be carried out in a sustained manner on a long term basis. “Previous initiatives by earlier Commissioners of Greater Chennai Corporation to rid the walls of cinema and political posters have failed. We have to wait and see what happens to the current drive,” said a resident of Mogappair West.

Mosquito control workers schedule released online

With the mosquito menace on the rise, the residents can now know when the domestic breeding checking workers will visit their streets to carry out mosquito control measures. The Greater Chennai Corporation has released the weekly schedule of the domestic breeding checking workers online.

The names of the workers are released and it also states the day when they should visit the streets allocated to them.

The city has more than 6,000 domestic breeding checking workers, who should visit the streets and also check tanks and other water storage facilities in houses.

For quite a period the civic body had diverted the domestic breeding checking workers to COVID-19 control measures and released them now as the cases are coming down.

The young artist spent 7 hours, meticulously preparing the portrait that stands 6.5 feet tall and 5.5 feet wide.

Roundtana clock tower gets a colourful makeover

By Our Correspondent

The clock tower at the Anna Nagar Roundtana, a major landmark in the neighbourhood for several decades, has got a colourful makeover much to the delight of local residents and others.

Standing at the centre of the Roundtana, next to the bust of former Chief Minister C N Annadurai in whose memory the Anna Nagar neighbourhood, developed in the late 1960s, was named, the clock tower has been painted in an assortment of seven colours in equal proportion. Now the clock sits on the pillar which is painted circularly in red, orange, yellow, green, light blue, indigo and purple – in that order from the top – arousing the curiosity of many.

Inquiries revealed that the colours represent the colours of the flag of the Cooperative Society. It has already caught the attention of social media users and is being shared on platforms such as Twitter and Facebook as well. Some of them believed that the colours represented the queer movement flag.

In fact, a Twitter user Sri Krishna A was among the first to point out the similarity of the two flags on the social media platform. “Anna Nagar Roundtana painted with the cooperative society’s flag. It closely resembles the LGBTQIA+ flag as well,” he tweeted. The tweet drew a good response. Another Twitter user responded, “I was wondering how thoughtful it is to paint LGBTQ Flag in a public place.. didnt’ realise till this tweet that it is similar to cooperative society’s flag.”

Many said they were not even aware that the Cooperative Society’s flag was this colourful. “I have never seen the flag of the Cooperative Society before but I found this clock tower to be extremely colourful and attractive,” said Saranya, a resident of Fifth Avenue in Anna Nagar.

Interestingly the colourful clock tower has now become a sort of a selfie point during non-peak hours. A cyclist, who took to pedalling after the relaxations from the COVID-19 lockdown, also shared a photo with the clock tower in the background on social media. “I have seen youngsters who come jogging or cycling in the morning stop by to take selfies with the colourful clock tower in the backdrop,” said a tea stall owner in the vicinity.

Tangedco's prompt action

Strong winds of intermediate duration uprooted a huge tree at a four road junction in Mohanram Nagar, Mogappair east late Friday night. Being close to midnight, luckily there was no movement of vehicles nor people on that road at the time of the fall. It is learnt that no one took the initiative to inform the Tangedco authorities despite the damage of three lamp posts leading to power failures in a few nearby streets.

"Only around six on Saturday morning were we informed and now we are on the job of removing the fallen tree," said Mr S Ramesh, junior engineer of the electricity board's Division 92 of the Greater Chennai Corporation. Just a few days back did the workers take up the job of pruning the out grown trees that were hitting the main power lines. Of late it has been found that the Tangedco officials have been very prompt in attending calls to ensure that there is uninterrupted power supply to the residents.

GCC intensifies action against stray cattle

The Greater Chennai Corporation has intensified action against stray cattle, which are often seen as a hindrance to traffic and one of the potential reasons for accidents in many places in the city.

The civic body had been carrying out inspection in the past two weeks, particularly in areas like Koyambedu and Triplicane, where the sight of cattle roaming on busy streets is very common.

The seized cattle would be taken to a Corporation-run shelter in Chintadripet. The owners can come and take them back within 10 days, failing which the cattle will be handed over to the Blue Cross.

The owners of the seized cattle would have to pay a fine of around Rs 1,500 and provide a written apology. According to a message from the corporation almost all the seized cattle have been taken back by the owners.

The owners are asked to keep cattle on their premises, and not to let them roam on the streets.

Malayalam film wins the hearts of many

After becoming the first Malayalam film to be screened at the Moscow International Film Festival in a long time, 'Santhoshathinte Onnam Rahasyam', was released across the US on Friday. This single shot 85 minute-long movie set in the backdrop of Covid 19 looks into the struggles and fights of a live-in couple Maria and Jitin.

The film stars Rima Kallingal, Jithin Puthanchery and Neeraja Rajendran and is produced by Shijo K. George. This relationship drama is about a car journey that they take together and reveals the nuances of an intense dispute and unreasoned manoeuvres that the couple adopt in the intimate relationship. The movie bagged the attention of critics during its screening at IFFK

2021 and at the Moscow International Film Festival. Saji Babu handled the camera for the movie written by Don Palathara.

கேஜிஎஃப் 2 படத்தின் தமிழ் வெளியீட்டு விரைவில்

இந்தியத் திரையுலகமே எதிர்பார்க்கும் கேஜிஎஃப் 2 படத்தின் தமிழ் வெளியீட்டு உரிமையை கைப்பற்றிய ட்ரீம் வாரியர் பிக்சர்ஸ் நிறுவனம்!

பிரசாந்த் நீல் இயக்கத்தில் 'ராக்கிங் ஸ்டார்' யாஷ் நடிப்பில் உருவாகி கன்னடத்திரையுலகில் 2018ல் வெளியான படம் 'கேஜிஎஃப்: சேப்டர் 1'. இப்படம் தமிழிலும் மொழிமாற்றம் செய்யப்பட்டு அதே நாளில் ரிலீஸ் செய்யப்பட்டது. இப்படத்தின் வசூல் வேட்டை தென்னிந்திய சினிமா வட்டாரங்களை ஆச்சரியப்பட வைத்தது. இப்படத்தின் மேக்கிங், பவர்ஃபுல் வசனங்கள், ஆக்ஷன் காட்சிகள் ஆகியவை தியேட்டர்களை அதிர்ச்சி செய்தன. இதனால் 'கேஜிஎஃப்'ன் அடுத்த பாகம் எப்போது வரும் என ரசிகர்கள் மத்தியில் பெரும் எதிர்பார்ப்பு ஏற்பட்டது.

இந்த 'கேஜிஎஃப்: சேப்டர் 2'ல் ஹீரோ யாஷுடன் சஞ்சய் தத், ரவீனா டாண்டன் போன்ற பாலிவுட் பிரபலங்களும் முக்கிய கேரக்டர்களில் நடித்திருக்கிறார்கள். நடிகர் பிரகாஷ் ராஜும் இப்படத்தில் நடித்திருக்கிறார். யாஷ் பிறந்தநாளை முன்னிட்டு பிப்ரவரி மாதம் வெளியான 'கேஜிஎஃப்: சேப்டர் 2' படத்தின் டீஸர் 200 மில்லியன்களுக்கு மேல் பார்வையிடல்களைப் பெற்றுள்ளது. தென்னிந்திய சினிமாவில் இதுவொரு சாதனையாக பார்க்கப்படுகிறது.

ஒட்டுமொத்த இந்திய சினிமாவை எடுத்துக்கொண்டால் பாலிவுட் படங்களுக்குதான் இந்தியா முழுமைக்கும் ரசிகர்கள் இருந்தனர். ஆனால், இதனை மாற்றிக்காட்டிய முதல் தென்னிந்திய படம் 'பாகுபலி'. இப்படத்திற்குப் பிறகு மீண்டும் அதே போன்றதொரு எதிர்பார்ப்பை ஏற்படுத்தியிருக்கிறது 'கேஜிஎஃப்: சேப்டர் 2'. ஒரே நேரத்தில் பல மொழிகளில் ரிலீஸாகவிருக்கும் இப்படத்தில் தமிழக வெளியீட்டு உரிமையை 'ட்ரீம் வாரியர் பிக்சர்ஸ்' நிறுவனம் கைப்பற்றியுள்ளது. விரைவில் இப்படத்தின் ரிலீஸ் தேதி அறிவிக்கப்படும் என்ற செய்தி வெளியாகியுள்ளது.
