Toll free number to register complaints on buses

In case a MTC bus skips a stop, passengers can now complain about it through the toll-free number 149.

Despite repeated warnings from the management against skipping the bus stops, the MTC's drivers are found to skip the bus stop leaving the passengers waiting for long.

In a social media post, MTC urged the passengers to inform the buses skipping the stop through the toll-free number 149 by mentioning its bus route number, vehicle registration number or depot number mentioned on the sides of buses, time and stop.

The toll-free number 149 could be used for registering passenger complaints on all State transport undertaking bus services.

Open drain in bus route road a cause for concern

By Our Correspondent

A portion of the storm water drain on Pari Salai, a main bus route road in Mogappair East, has not been covered by slabs posing a threat to road users including pedestrians and bike riders.

The Pari Salai, which connects Valayapathi Salai with the Metropolitan Transport Corporation's Mogappair East bus depot, is one of the high density traffic roads in the neighbourhood. As it is encroachments as well as parking of vehicles on either side of the road has made the stretch congested during peak hours on this road, which as is the case with the other roads in the neighbourhood, allows for tow away movement of vehicles.

On one of the stretches on the left side of the road on the Mogappair East bus depot to Valayapathi Salai route, a portion of the storm water drain has been left uncovered. Stagnated water, dark in colour, with an assortment of waste, can be seen on this stretch that is located close to the Metropolitan Transport Corporation's Masudi Bus Stop. Motorcycle and scooter riders as well as pedestrians complain of encountering extreme difficulty while navigating this stretch as the storm water drain is located at the road level. This issue has been highlighted in these columns of the Mogappair Mail even in the past but no action has been taken to cover the storm water drain with concrete slabs.

"The traffic on this road is extremely dense during the peak morning and evening hours. Riders of scooters and motorcycles close to this stretch of the open storm water drain face a real risk of being pushed to the margins and falling into the drain when heavy vehicles including the MTC buses pass through this area. The case of the pedestrian is even worse as they cannot move to a safe corner if a heavy vehicle passes by close," points out Abdul Gafoor, a worker in a retail shop located on Pari Salai.

Also the open drain is a source of dumping of waste and consequently a breeding ground for mosquitoes, point out local residents, who want this portion of the storm water drain to be covered by cement slabs at the earliest.

Proposal for paid parking in Anna Nagar evokes mixed response

By N Rathi Chithra

A proposal to introduce paid parking on hourly basis on a five square kilometre area in the neighbourhood of Anna Nagar has evoked mixed response from residents, motorists and other stakeholders.

The Chennai Unified Metropolitan Transport Authority (CUMTA) has proposed a paid parking project within the Anna Nagar neighbourhood. Officials said the project, scheduled to commence within this financial year, will undergo a pilot phase covering a 5 sq.km area, encompassing 23 km of road network.

Officials added that the CUMTA has concluded an extensive study of the area and is poised to issue a tender for the project, encompassing both primary and secondary roads. Concurrently, the Greater Chennai Corporation will embark on footpath improvement works alongside parking management during the pilot phase.

The proposed parking policy, drafted by CUMTA with the aim to alleviate traffic congestion and promote public transport usage, is expected to receive the State Government endorsement.

"We will be undertaking a public consultation with residents and shopkeepers after the Model Code of Conduct for Lok Sabha elections ceases," said a source.

Opinions on the proposed paid parking system in Anna Nagar are mixed, reflecting diverse perspectives within the community.

One resident of Thirumanigalam area, Vilasini Rao, expressed her support for the initiative arguing that "paid parking can deter unnecessary vehicle usage, reducing congestion and pollution. It could also generate revenue for neighbourhood improvements."

However, her view is not being endorsed by everyone. Some residents and business owners raised concerns about potential drawbacks. Krishna Kumar, a local shopkeeper, voiced his apprehension: "Implementing paid parking may deter customers from visiting our shops, particularly if they can park for free elsewhere. It could harm small businesses already struggling with economic challenges."

As the proposal moves forward, balancing the benefits of reduced congestion and increased revenue against potential economic impacts will be crucial for stakeholders in Anna Nagar. The forthcoming public consultation will provide an avenue for further discussion and refinement of the proposed parking policy. What is certain though is that if this pilot project succeeds then a similar paid parking model, which could prove costly for vehicle owners, would be extended to the other neighbourhoods in the city of Chennai as well.

Salesperson to a successful entrepreneur

By Our Correspondent

"It is said that most successful entrepreneurs are excellent salespersons but not all excellent salespersons are successful entrepreneurs".

True to this saying, V Veeraraghavan, proprietor of Hi-Look Tailors (Textiles & Readymade) in Mogappair west has proved this right but the hard way.

Fondly known as 'Veera' by his close circles, his life has not been a bed of roses. Due to financial constraints in his family, he was forced to discontinue his studies and take up a job in a cloth store. He was just 12 years old when he quit school, but with sheer determination and dedication he picked up the nuances of the trade. He could learn things fast and at the age of 19 he started his own venture from a ramshackle of a place that was just 70 Sq.ft. in Mogappair and named it Style Fit. This was way back in 1999. Still young but his never-say-die attitude enabled Veera to grow in confidence.

Veera at one time struggled to make ends meet but now he is a happy small time entrepreneur and has more than 15 people working for him. At present he owns three branches in the name of Hi-Look Tailors, Textiles and Readymade. The second one came up in Ayanambakkam and the last one is at Nolambur.

Hi-Look now offers 10% off on all branded items. Among others items available are school uniforms (all leading brands), suitings and shirting (multi brands), innerwears (gents and ladies), lining and matching blouse. He is an authorised Raymond Stockists too. Apart from materials he has a well knit tailoring unit. Admission time and stitching of uniforms play a major role in his business.

Hi-Look functions at R14, Nolambur Phase-2, 3rd Main Road, 5th Cross Street. Also at Mogappair West, 8 / PC-2, Bharathi Salai. Mel Ayanambakkam, Next to Velammal Vidyalaya Annexure. Ph: 99629 82044

Dignity Foundation Chennai Chapter celebrated Earth Day with a community outreach campaign echoing this year's theme of "Say No to Plastics" and promoting sustainable practices. Chai Masti Members, along with staff, distributed reusable cloth bags at Besant Nagar beach in the morning, engaging beachgoers in conversations about Earth Day's significance and offering practical tips to reduce their plastic footprint. Eye-catching placards with anti-plastic quotes amplified their message. The campaign continued at Anna Nagar Tower Park in the evening.

As the city reels under the sweltering heat, the delicious ice apple (nungu), usually sold by the dozen for ₹100 in most places, is bringing some respite from the heat to the residents. The season lasts for only about two months, and one has to make the most of it.

Beat the summer heat with sweet, delicious ice apple

Ice apple or Nungu is a lesser-known tropical fruit of palmyra palm tree and is perfect to beat the summer heat considering its helps cool the body and maintain electrolyte balance. Ice apples have a brown skin and need to be peeled to extract its translucent and sweet pulp. Its appearance resembles that of litchi fruit and tastes slightly sweet. A low-calorie fruit, Nungu or ice apple is rich in calcium and phytonutrients apart from sodium and potassium. A remedy for stomach ailments, ice apple helps prevent dehydration and fatigue in summer.

Ice apple is very helpful in relieving skin issues due to heat like heat rashes and itchiness and helps clear out toxins from the body. However, one should avoid consuming over-ripe ice apples as it can cause stomach aches.

BENEFITS OF ICE APPLE

1. It acts as a natural coolant for the body
2. Helps in electrolyte balance
3. Prevents dehydration
4. Storehouse of minerals
5. Treats constipation

To play or not to play in neighbourhood parks

By N Rathi Chithra

A debate has been triggered over whether to permit or not to permit children to play cricket in the public parks maintained by the Greater Chennai Corporation in the neighbourhoods of Mogappair East and West, Anna Nagar and Ambattur.

There has been a demand by representatives of some residential welfare associations not to allow children to play cricket in the public lung spaces. They complain that sometimes walkers are hit by the flying ball.

Reports have emerged that there is a proposal to ban children from playing cricket in the public parks in the neighbourhood. Recently, the Greater Chennai Corporation's Anna Nagar Ward 104 councillor T V Shemmozhi was quoted in a report as saying that the civic agency plans to erect notice boards in his ward declaring that playing cricket is banned inside public parks. This, he said, followed complaints from residential welfare associations that walkers have been hurt in areas such as Vasantham Colony and Iswarya Colony in the neighbourhood of Anna Nagar where children played cricket in the parks.

The move has evoked mixed responses from residents, children and other stakeholders. "When children play cricket inside the parks, it causes disturbances to the walkers and joggers. Sometimes they get hit by a stray shot played by the batsman. Ideally, cricket should be played in the playground and not inside the park, which is more of a relaxation or recreation spot for the residents," contended M T Raghavan, an octogenarian resident of Anna Nagar.

Cricket lovers, however, have a different sort of argument to place to justify why they end up landing in public parks for a game. "We do not have adequate public playgrounds in the Mogappair neighbourhood. So we choose the bigger parks to play a game. What's wrong with it? For instance, you take the Mangal Eri Park in Mogappair, which is maintained by the Greater Chennai Corporation. It is a fairly large park with a pathway exclusively for the walkers and joggers. And we also have some open space where we can play cricket or football without disturbing others. There isn't anything wrong with this," contends Hidansh, who lives in Mogappair.
