GCC imposes fine on illegal sewage connections

GREATER Chennai Corporation (GCC) will start imposing fines on households and buildings that illegally let sewage into storm-water drains. Officials said such illegal sewage connections increased from 1.3 lakh in 2023 to 2.1 lakh in 2025.

The corporation will give one week's notice to violators before taking action. If the connection is not removed, it will be cut off and a fine of ₹5,000 will be imposed. Larger buildings will face higher penalties.

The residents are asked to stop polluting the drains, as it leads to health issues and blocks storm drains during rains. GCC has now started work to identify and stop illegal sewage discharge in different parts of the city. In 2024, GCC removed 1,833 illegal sewage connections across the city. A total fine of ₹5.98 lakh was collected from residents who were found polluting the drains.

The highest number of illegal connections was found in The Teynampet (zone 9) where ₹55,000 was collected as a penalty, followed by the Tondiarpet zone.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Plea to stop dumping & burning of garbage

THE Mel Ayanambakkam Main Road gains prominence due to the fact, it connects nearby areas such as Mogappair West with Ambattur-Ayapakkam and Vanagaram-Maduravoyal junctions. There are important schools on this road as well. Adding to this, there has been notable urbanisation of this area in recent times.

Despite the advantages, the road's condition is pathetic with potholes right in front of the school where several children travel everyday. Moreover garbage dumping is a common sight right across this main road. It's surprising that the corporation officials have not placed a single waste bin to collect litter. One does not understand why the corporation officials are negligent in waste disposal management and hygiene in this neighbourhood. The football ground located in this main road is often prone to misuse as some people from the neighbourhood are dumping waste. It was also noted that some bury their dead pet animals in an improper way which could result in a dreadful disease outbreak in the future.

Dumping garbage has been the order of the day, even by a few industries and other business organisations. And many a time the corporation workers end up burning the rubbish, which is a health hazard to the people living close by. This being a busy place, it's high time the officials concerned take the necessary action at the earliest.

Modern Child Care Centre inaugurated at Anna Nagar

By N Rathi Chithra

IN a welcome move for working families and underprivileged communities, the Greater Chennai Corporation has set up a modern Child Care Centre at its Anna Nagar Zonal Office. The facility, built at a cost of ₹32 lakh, was declared open by the Chennai Mayor R Priya in the presence of several senior officials and local representatives recently.

Brightly painted and thoughtfully designed, the centre is equipped with soft flooring, colourful furniture, educational toys and safe play structures, aimed at creating a joyful and secure environment for children. The facility is particularly intended to support the children of Corporation staff and lower income group residents in the area.

"This is such a blessing for people like us," said Lakshmi, a domestic worker from nearby locality. "I often bring my child with me when I go for work in the area. Now I can leave him in a place that is safe and fun. I never imagined a government office would do something like this." Selvam, an auto rickshaw driver who often waits outside the Corporation office for passengers, expressed similar appreciation. "My wife works as a housemaid and we have always struggled with child care. This centre gives us huge relief. It is neat, colourful, and I hope the staff would be very caring."

The inauguration event drew many and included the participation of Anna Nagar MLA Mr. M.K. Mohan, Greater Chennai Corporation Central Zone Deputy Commissioner KJ. Praveen Kumar, IAS, and several Corporation Council members. The event featured a ribbon-cutting ceremony, a guided tour of the new facility, and interaction with the officials.

"The Greater Chennai Corporation has done something truly people-friendly," said Revathi, a roadside flower vendor. "Often, these buildings and services feel out of reach for us. But this centre is a sign that they are thinking about our children too."

Officials confirmed that trained caretakers will manage the day-to-day operations and that safety and hygiene standards will be strictly followed. The centre will be available for use during Corporation working hours and is expected to expand its services based on public response.

"This is not just a building—it is peace of mind for hundreds of working mothers," added Shanmugam, a sanitation worker.

With this initiative, Greater Chennai Corporation has set a positive precedent for inclusive urban development, demonstrating that city infrastructure can and must reflect the needs of all sections of society, say the local residents.

Food delivery executive arrested for sexual harassment

By Our Correspondent

A cross-section of residents of Anna Nagar has called for stronger safety measures and increased patrolling after a shocking incident of sexual harassment rocked the usually quiet neighbourhood. Anna Nagar Police, this past week, arrested a 24-year-old food delivery executive for allegedly sexually harassing a woman walking alone on the street.

According to police sources, the complainant, a 25-year-old woman residing in Anna Nagar, was returning home after visiting a friend when the incident occurred on Sixth Avenue. An unidentified man on a motorbike began following her and allegedly inappropriately touched her before fleeing the scene.

The woman, displaying courage, filed a complaint with the Anna Nagar police the same day. Based on her account and CCTV footage from nearby shops, police traced and arrested the accused. He has been identified as Andrew John Paul, a 24-year-old native of Udumalpet in Tiruppur district. He had been working in Chennai as a food delivery executive.

Police have booked Andrew under relevant sections of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita and the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act. He has been remanded in judicial custody.

The incident has sparked concern and outrage among Anna Nagar residents. Many expressed shock that such an incident could occur in a well-populated and usually well-patrolled area.

"This is a very safe neighbourhood, or so we thought. It's frightening to know that someone can be targeted on a busy road like Sixth Avenue," said Latha Suresh, a local resident and mother of two college-going daughters.

"We need better surveillance and quicker police response in such cases."

Another resident, Arvind Kumar, said, "This is not the first time we are hearing about harassment incidents involving delivery personnel in the city. We cannot generalise, but there should be stricter background checks by companies."

Locals in the area also shared their concerns. "There are cameras outside my store, and we often see young men riding rashly at night. We should all stay more vigilant," said Ramesh, who runs a store on Sixth Avenue.

Police assured that steps are being taken to ensure the safety of women in the locality. "We are increasingly patrolling in residential zones, especially during late evening hours. We also urge citizens to report any suspicious activity immediately," said a senior officer with the Anna Nagar Police.

GCC to hire 143 data operators

The Chennai Corporation has planned to employ security personnel for burial grounds maintained by it and to outsource 143 data entry operators for its public health wing for a year. The Greater Chennai Corporation decided to recruit 300 security personnel for the burial ground, and as per its plan, two people will be deployed per burial ground with three shifts.

The GCC maintains 50 burial grounds across the city. A tender was floated for the same, and two companies which quoted the same amount were selected. The work will be split equally under the Tamil Nadu Tender Transparency Act, 1998. The salary for the security personnel has been fixed at Rs 26,695, and Rs 9.61 crore is to be spent on this recruitment.

Gulveer bags long distance double in Asian C'ship

By R Srinivasa Raghavan

GULVEER Singh stole the thunder at the Asian Athletics Championship in Gumi, Korea. The Indian bagged a long distance double, winning the 5000m clocking a time of 13 minutes 24.77 seconds. Gulveer had earlier clinched the 10,000m. India have won 18 medals (eight gold, seven silver and three bronze) and occupy the second spot behind China (26: 15 gold, eight silver and three bronze) at the end of the penultimate day on Friday.

Avinash Sable, who has been trying to make an impact in big events, ended India's long wait for a gold (36 years) in men's 3000m steeplechase, capturing the top spot with a time of 8:20.92.

Agasara Nandini clinched the women's heptathlon gold, scoring 5941 points. She bettered her own record (5813) by 128 points. Nandini deserves accolade for winning the gruel-

The tournament uses an interesting scoring system (3 points for a win and one point for a draw in classical game). To make the tournament more exciting: if the regular game ends in draw, players compete in an Armageddon game to decide the winner of the round. The winner of Armageddon gets half point extra (1.5 points). In the Armageddon, white gets 10 minutes, black seven minutes, with black having draw odds.

ling event, besides emerging as the best all-round women's athlete.

Pooja became the second Indian woman after Bobby Aloysius to win the women's high jump gold (1.89m). If the 18-year-old keeps working hard and improves constantly, Pooja can be a medal contender in big events in the future.

GUKEESH OUTWITS NAKAMURA

Dommaraju Gukesh shared the fourth spot with compatriot Arjun Erigaisi (both 4.5) at the end of the fourth round of Norway Chess in Stavanger, Norway. After suffering losses in the first two rounds, Gukesh recovered with a victory over world No.2 Hikaru Nakamura. He followed it up by winning an Armageddon game against Fabiano Caruana in the fourth round. His classical game against Caruana ended in a draw.

Gukesh's first game as World champion against Magnus Carlsen in the classical format ended in Norwegian's favour. The much awaited clash between Gukesh and Carlsen in the first round was an absorbing clash but the Chennaiite couldn't spot the drawing move in time pressure and lost the game. After suffering another loss to Arjun in the second round, Gukesh has bounced back well going into the rest day on Friday.

Carlsen (8) jumped into the lead with a victory over Arjun in the fourth round. He is followed by Caruana (7) in second spot. India No.1 Koneru Humpy shared the lead with Anna Muzychuk (both 7) in the Norway Women's Chess, which is taking place simultaneously. Women's World champion Ju Wenjun (5.5) occupies the third place.

Vaishali Rameshbabu (3.5), who is the second Indian in the fray, has had a tough tournament so far. After losing to Humpy in the first round, Vaishali's best moment came in the fourth round, when the Chennaiite overcame Anna Muzychuk in an Armageddon game. With six rounds still remaining, Vaishali will be looking to perform better in the coming rounds.

GIRI TRIUMPHS IN SHARJAH MASTERS

Dutch No.1 Anish Giri triumphed in the Sharjah Masters International Chess Championship in Sharjah. Victory over Aditya Mittal in the final round earned him the crown. Remaining unbeaten, Giri clinched the title with a + 5 score (7/9, five wins and four draws). Gaining 10.3 rating points, besides having a performance rating of 2834, were the other highlights of his success. Aleksandar Indjic of Serbia and Nodirbek Abdusattorov of Uzbekistan (both 6.5) came second and third. Aditya Mittal was India's best performer, finishing 10th with 5.5 points. He had a great tournament, having a rating gain of 23.1 points, and racking up a performance rating of 2736.

Parking woes mount in Mogappair as vehicles occupy public roads

By N Rathi Chithra

RESIDENTS of Mogappair are up in arms over the perennial parking menace plaguing their locality. What was once a quiet residential neighbourhood is now grappling with clogged streets, thanks to the illegal and long-term parking of heavy vehicles, including tractors and commercial transport vans.

Take the case of Ori Salai for instance. On any given day, Ori Salai and its adjoining roads are lined with an assortment of parked vehicles – some of which, locals say, have not moved in weeks. A recent visit to the area revealed even tractors and commercial vehicles are parked near residential buildings, leaving hardly any space for residents to park their personal vehicles.

"These tractors and vans don't belong to our street residents. They are parked here by outsiders who don't have parking in their own areas," complained Mahalakshmi Ranganathan, a homemaker and long-time resident of the area. "This is not just an inconvenience – it's a safety hazard. Emergency vehicles find it hard to navigate through these narrow lanes."

Local residents allege that some of the commercial vehicles are owned by businesses operating in nearby areas, which find Mogappair's relatively lenient enforcement a convenient dumping ground for their fleets. With no consistent action from authorities, the problem has only grown.

"It's deeply frustrating," said Govardhan, a private company employee and father of two. "After a long day at work, I often have to park my car almost half a kilometre away from my home. We have approached the local authorities and even lodged complaints with the Greater Chennai Corporation, but nothing has changed," he claimed.

The problem isn't limited to residential discomfort. The constant obstruction also affects traffic flow. Delivery vehicles, autos, and even school vans are often forced to manoeuvre dangerously through narrow gaps.

Residents also point to the lack of signage or no-parking enforcement as a contributing factor. "There's no monitoring. People park where they like and leave vehicles unattended for days. The civic body needs to tow these vehicles or at least fine the owners," said a retired government servant who says he has taken to documenting vehicle numbers and sending complaints.

Locals are now demanding stricter enforcement of parking rules, installation of CCTV cameras, and the creation of designated parking areas for commercial vehicles away from residential zones.

Until then, residents of Ori Salai and other parts of Mogappair can only hope their daily struggle for space finds a resolution – before a minor inconvenience turns into a major urban crisis.

Deadline to file ITR extended

THE Income Tax department on Tuesday extended the due date for filing ITRs for Assessment Year (AY) 2025-26 to September 15 from July 31. Individuals and entities, who do not need to get their accounts audited, are required to file income tax returns by July 31, the Central Board of Direct Taxes said.

CMRL wins award

CHENNAI Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) has been awarded the Global Environmental Excellence Company of 2025 in the transportation sector by the Global Energy and Environment Foundation (GEEF). The recognition was conferred at the Global Energy Leaders Summit held in New Delhi.

CMRL is the only metro rail operator in the country to receive this year's award in the category, which acknowledges best environmental practices in transport infrastructure. The award citation credits CMRL for initiatives that include improving air quality, conserving environmental resources and expanding solar energy usage.

Avocados reduce the risk of heart disease

AVOCADOS offer a wide range of health benefits, including supporting heart health, brain function and skin health. They are rich in healthy fats, fiber, and various nutrients, contributing to a balanced and nutritious diet.

Here's a more detailed look at the benefits:

Heart Health: Avocados are a good source of monounsaturated fats, which can help lower LDL (bad) cholesterol and raise HDL (good) cholesterol, reducing the risk of heart disease.

Brain Function: The healthy fats in avocados support brain function and cognitive health, potentially helping to prevent cognitive decline.

Skin Health: It can contribute to healthy skin by providing antioxidants, hydrating vitamin E, and other nutrients that can help protect against UV damage and promote elasticity.

Weight Management:

The high fiber and healthy fat content in avocados can promote satiety, helping you feel fuller for longer and potentially aiding in weight management. Blood Sugar Regulation: It can help regulate blood sugar levels due to their high fiber and healthy fat content, making them a good choice for individuals managing diabetes or insulin resistance.

Nutrient Absorption: The healthy fats in avocados can enhance the absorption of other nutrients, including fat-soluble vitamins like A, D, E, and K, which are found in other foods.

Digestive Health:

The high fiber content in avocados can promote healthy digestion and regularity, helping to prevent constipation and support a healthy gut microbiome.

Pregnancy Support: They are a good source of folate, a crucial nutrient for fetal development during pregnancy, helping to prevent birth defects.

Anti-Inflammatory Properties: The monounsaturated fats in avocados, especially oleic acid, possess anti-inflammatory properties that may help reduce inflammation in the body.

Rich in Other Nutrients: Avocados contain various other nutrients, including potassium, vitamin C, vitamin K, and B vitamins, contributing to overall health and well-being.

Coaching for supplementary board exam from June 2

THE Corporation-run schools across the city will kickstart preparing the students for the upcoming supplementary board exams with special classes starting on June 2. The local body will pick teachers from each zone to coach the students.

The supplementary exams for class 12 have been scheduled from June 25, and classes 10 and 11 have been scheduled from July 4. Joint commissioner (education) said, "We will group the best teachers from each zone to coach, encourage and support the students for the supplementary exam and to achieve the best results." It was also noted that compared to last year's 6,000, the enrollment for the upcoming academic year across 420 corporation-run schools has surpassed 16,000 and may reach beyond 18,000.

The NCC Army Cadets of Velammal Vidyalaya West actively participated in the NCC camp held at Velammal Matriculation Hr.Sec.School, Panchetti and won many awards.

EV charging station at Mangal Eri Park

The Greater Chennai Corporation (GCC) has initiated efforts to install more EV charging stations, recognising the need for it.

The Tamil Nadu Green Energy Corporation Limited had requested the Government to identify places for the installation of charging stations across all 15 zones of the Chennai Corporation.

Charging points will come up in beaches, parks, playgrounds, gardens, lakes and other government-owned vacant lands within the corporation limits for the same.

Some of the locations where charging stations will be set up are the Chennai Egmore National Art Gallery, Mangal Eri Park in the Ambattur zone, Chetpet Eco Park and Bougainvillea Park in the Anna Nagar zone, Semmozhi Park and Nageswara Rao Park in the Teynampet zone, and Shri Ashtalakshmi temple parking in the Adyar zone.
