Childline centre opens at Villivakkam Railway Station

THE Directorate of Children Welfare and Special Services (DCWSS) has renovated and reopened the Child Helpline (CHL) 1098 centre at Villivakkam railway station after a long delay recently. In Tamil Nadu, the 1098 calls are currently handled by over ten staff members at the DCWSS head office in the city. Additionally, the staff are employed in railway stations under Southern Railways (SR) at MGR Central, Egmore and Villivakkam. Calling for improved facilities, the staff had requested a renovation and with the Rotary Club's intervention, the CHL at Central, Egmore, and Villivakkam Railway Stations has been renovated. It is learnt that DCWSS is recruiting call operators, IT supervisor and help line administrator.

22nd Kala Sampada – annual art festival

THE Rukminidevi Natyakshetra Foundation, based in Mogappair East, presents the 22nd Kala Sampada- Annual Art festival. For 29 years, the institute has been committed to providing a systematic part time curriculum in Bharatanatyam, Carnatic vocal & instrumental music, and painting. The festival will be held at Rukmini Arangam, Kalakshetra. On April 17, 2026, at 4.30 P.M, the Music department presents "Pancha Baasha Sangeetham", a thematic concert featuring compositions in five languages. Battlelines drawn in Ambattur: 23 candidates in fray

By Our Correspondent

THE battlelines have been clearly drawn in the Ambattur constituency for the April 23 Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly elections. The constituency extensively covers neighbourhoods of Ambattur as well as parts of Mogappair West and Mogappair East.

As per the final list of candidates released by the Election Commission of India as many as 23 candidates are in the fray in the constituency, which is a mix of industrial areas and residential areas comprising all strata of society including the middle, lower middle and working classes. While 40 candidates had filed their nomination papers, during scrutiny as many as 13 of them were rejected. Four candidates withdrew from the race after the scrutiny of nominations were completed.

The ruling DMK has fielded a debutant AP Poornima, who is a doctor by qualification. As per her election affidavit, the 33-year-old candidate is a resident of Sri Krishna Apartments in Officers Colony, Anna Nagar Western Extension. She is also the Councillor of Greater Chennai Corporation representing Ward Number 87.

The other challenger is KN Sekar, who has been fielded by the Pattali Makkal Katchi with the support of the AIADMK-BJP inclusive National Democratic Alliance. He is a resident of Anna Street in Kallikuppam in Ambattur. The Naam Tamilar Katchi, an Election Commission of India recognised State political party, has fielded Silambarasan from the constituency, while G Balamurugan is trying his luck on actor-politician C Joseph Vijay's Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam ticket.

Others in the fray include candidates of the Bahujan Samaj Party, Tamizhaga Vazhvirimai Katchi and three registered political parties. As many as 14 Independent candidates are also testing the electoral waters from the constituency and two of them share the PMK candidate's name but with different initials.

The Ambattur Assembly constituency, though in Chennai, technically falls under the Tiruvallur district and it has an electorate of over 3.3 lakh comprising a mix of industrial workers, traders and the working class.

Anna Nagar resident held with 100 dummy EVMs

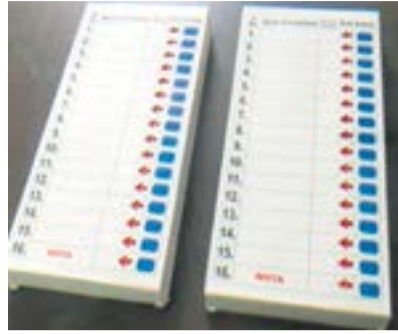

By N Rathi Chithra

DAYS after a huge unaccounted cash seizure was reported near Golden Colony in Mogappair, the nearby Anna Nagar neighbourhood has hit the headlines for the seizure of 100 dummy Electronic Voting Machines from a resident of Anna Nagar Western Extension. This incident took place on Friday.

According to sources, a Static Surveillance Team stopped a load carrying auto rickshaw, which was being driven by Ganesan, a 50 year old man, who is a resident of Anna Nagar Western Extension.

“Upon inspecting the vehicle the team found 100 dummy Electronic Voting Machines and 20,600 visiting cards containing photos of former Minister Vaithilingam, who is now contesting from the Orathanadu Assembly constituency. When inquired with the driver, Ganesan, he said the consignment was sent by one Selvam, who is a resident of Salem district in west Tamil Nadu. Ganesan had collected the consignment from Vadapalani was taking it to Koyambedu for despatching it to Pudukottai.

Meanwhile, media reports quoted Vaithilingam as disassociating himself from the seizure of the dummy Electronic Voting Machines and the visiting cards. He claimed he had never printed visiting cards in his entire political career spanning nearly half-a-century. According to Vaithilingam this must be the handiwork of some mischievous elements to bring disrepute to him.

When contacted, Election Commission of India officials said they were conducting further probe into the issue. The materials will remain confiscated and the probe will reveal why these dummy Electronic Voting Machines were obtained and why they were being dispatched to Pudukottai. Ganesan was also being questioned, the officials said, adding they hoped to uncover the truth at the earliest.

TN schools to reopen on June 1

In the notification issued by the School Education Department on Thursday, the dates were announced. The notification also directed the teachers to report early for preparatory work, and that schools must ensure readiness for the new aca-demical year, including the completion of administrative and academic arrangements. Additionally, the department has directed all school authorities to complete evaluation work and finalise student records before the vacation is over, ensure proper maintenance of school infrastructure during the holiday period and take necessary safety precautions for school buildings.

It was a memorable evening for the kids and parents at the graduation day held at V kids west on March 31. Among those present was Mr Sriram Velmohan, Deputy Correspondent, Velammal Nexus.
